Section C: Justification for Soliciting from a Single Source or Brand Name

Citations: 10 U.S.C.2304(c)(1) or 41 U.S.C.3304(a)(1).

As the Optimizing the Human Weapon System (OHWS) Program is already underway at other bases, this piece of equipment is necessary to ensure reliable and valid exercise programs and data collection across the Air Force. Paragraph 6.2.7.3 of the OHWS CONOP states "Strength and conditioning equipment and perishable supplies will be necessary for the completion of the musculoskeletal fitness and training requirements for the OHWS. This equipment may include functional fitness, strength training, electronic monitoring, and cardio equipment. Equipment purchases intended for the OHWS will be coordinated through the OHWS PM prior to purchase. This will ensure appropriateness of the equipment and help increase the effectiveness of the program. The OHWS PM will assist with equipment recommendations for the OHWS program." The Cervifit 2.0 is included on the OHWS PM approved equipment list.

Section D: Efforts to Obtain Competition

This is a brand name item and competition is expected.

Section E: Steps to Preclude Future Single Source or Brand Name Awards

The OHWS program is following guidance from MAJCOM program managers and a standardized equipment list to keep programs valid and reliable across all OHWS programs.

Section F: Contracting Officer's Determination

I have determined, in accordance with FAR 13.106-1\(b\)\(1\), that the circumstances of this contract action deem only a single source is reasonably available.
